The desktop version of the website features a prominent header with the 'HUNTER ESTATE' logo and a navigation bar with links to 'Properties', 'Featured Properties', 'Development Projects', 'News & Blog', and 'About Us'. Below the header is a large banner with the text 'Uncover Siem Reap's Hottest Deals' and a subtext 'Discover a Wide Range of Properties Available in Siem Reap.' A search bar with dropdown menus for 'Location', 'Property type', 'Buy/rent', and 'Bedrooms' is positioned over a background image of a city skyline. The main content area is titled 'Featured Properties' and displays four property cards: '15 Bedroom Boutique' (Exclusive), '2-Bedroom Private Villa' (Under Market Price), '3-Bedroom Luxury Villa' (Under Market Price), and '14 Bedrooms Boutique'. Each card includes a small image, price, title, location, and room details.

The mobile version of the website has a similar layout but with a more compact design. It features a header with the 'HUNTER ESTATE' logo and a 'Menu' button. Below the header is a banner with the same text as the desktop version. The search bar is integrated directly into the header. The main content area is also titled 'Featured Properties' and displays the same four property cards as the desktop version, though they appear slightly smaller due to the screen size. A yellow message icon is located in the bottom right corner of the mobile view.

The screenshot shows the desktop version of the BREAD DESIGN MEDIA website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Home, Services, and Blog, and a red 'Contact us' button. The main headline reads 'Creative Solutions & Media Production'. Below it, a paragraph describes their services: 'We specialize in delivering top-notch design and media production services that drive engagement and growth. From concept to completion, our expert team works closely with you to create visually stunning and impactful content.' Two calls-to-action buttons are present: 'Work with us' and 'See our portfolio'. To the right, there's a circular graphic divided into six segments, each representing a service: Branding (showing a smartphone), Packaging (showing a green box), Advertisement (showing a magazine cover), Photography (showing a collage of photos), Videography (showing a video player), and Website Design (showing a laptop screen). At the bottom, there's a section titled 'Our services' with a horizontal scrollable menu featuring icons for various services like branding, packaging, and videography.
